

*Ayeeyo Mural and Storytelling Summer
Lake Street Live: Mural, Movement, &
Storytelling*

*#LakeStreetLive, #ArtistAgainstIslamophobia
#DontYouFeelItToo #MillionArtist Movement*

Location: Ayeeyo

1837 East Lake Street, Minneapolis MN

Using visual art, storytelling and dance - we hope to build community & celebrate diverse cultures of our neighborhood on Lake Street at Ayeeyo Childcare Center's East Lake Street location, and the surrounding blocks this summer.

Ayeeyo Mural, Movement and Storytelling Project collective will kick off our mural painting at Ayeeyo during Lake Street + Minnehaha Open Streets on Sunday July 22nd!

We will be artmaking with Million Artist Movement (MAM) and dancing with Don't You Feel It Too? (DYFIT) Come join us and voice your ideas about what you love about our neighborhood for our community project.

This is a kid-friendly event for ALL AGES!

Community Days:

- Sunday, July 22nd 11am-5pm
- Saturday, August 11, 3-6pm
- Sunday, August 12, 3-6pm DYFIT
- Saturday, August 25, 3-6pm
- Sunday, August 26, 3-6pm DYFIT

Final Mural Party Community Celebration Weekend:

- September 8: Puppet Show with the Bookworms

- September 9: Mural Party Celebration - DYFIT, MAM, and more!

Events surrounding our mural creation will include:

- Painting with Daren Scott Hill and various local artists
- Storytelling & Art Making with Million Artist Movement
- Dance with Don't You Feel It Too?
- Puppet show with The Bookworms
- Community Dialogue
- Taste variety of local foods from our neighborhood
- And more!

Collaborating Partners include:

Ayeeyo Childcare Center Inc.

Don't You Feel It Too?

Million Artist Movement

Little Earth Native Youth Arts Collective

Kallie Melvin & The Bookworms Book Club

Indigenous Roots

Special thanks to the City of Minneapolis, Indigenous Roots, and Pangea World Theater for their financial support of this project.

